TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

This is hereby clarified that C. M. P. Degree College is a constituent college of the University of Allahabad. Hence, the admission in the college is done in accordance with the approval of the affiliating university against sanctioned seats through a UG/PG Admission Test conducted by the affiliating university. After completing the admission process as per the prescribed rules and regulations, the constituent colleges used to send the approved list of students admitted in the college following the reservation rules by the Principal and publishes it on the website. There is no further prescribed process of approval of admission list as per the ordinance and practices of the University.

C.M.P. Degree College as a constituent college has also been following the same prescribed process.
